Mills to Start up.

To-day three or four of the light sheet mills at the Aina-Standard works, in the Standard department, will resume work. It is understood that the scale for these sheets has been signed, but not the scale for heavier plates, etc.

Attempted Suicide.

Frank P. Reynolds, traveling salesman for Peter Welty & Co., the wholesale liquor men, attempted suicide in Columbus Friday by taking morphine, but his condition was discovered and he was removed to a hospital, where it is thought he will recover. Domestic trouble is given as the cause. His wife left him last week.

Picnic To-day.

The St. Alphonsus, perhaps the leading German organization of the city now, will to-day celebrate its twenty-second anniversary with a grand picnic on the State Fair grounds. A street parade, headed by the American Cornet band, will open the celebration. A very attractive programme of amusements has been arranged, including one or two decided novelties, and all who attend may feel assured of a good time.

Arrests on Sunday.

Yesterday Patrol Driver Fulton arrested Frank Little and Charles Jones for fighting in East Wheeling. Officers Driller and Trisheiler ran in Eldridge Ward, Thomas Smith and Thomas Hardon, all colored, for fighting. They were playing craps in the old B. & O. yards south of the creek, and got into a dispute which ended in a row. All five of the prisoners put up the cash security for their appearance this morning.

In Jail for Assault.

Saturday evening as Walter Burk and Ernest Vierweller were going home in Fulton they were assaulted by a stranger known as John, who was drunk and "spooling for a row." He tried to shoot Burk, but his revolver missed fire. Then he beat Vierweller up pretty badly, his head being terribly bruised and cut. Yesterday Constable Anderson arrested the assailant, and he was brought to the city and lodged in jail for a hearing by Squire Arkie.

Trouble at a Ball Game.

The Mt. Pleasant ball club came down on Saturday and played three innings with a Martin's Ferry club, with the score 6 to 1 in favor of Martin's Ferry. In the second inning Walker, the Mt. Pleasant catcher, was struck in the eye by the ball and in the fourth inning Ned Gorsuch of the Mt. Pleasant club slapped a Martin's Ferry urchin because he and others had grieved him. The kid seized a piece of brick and threw it at Gorsuch, striking him on the back of the head and cutting a large gash. This stopped the game. The battery for Mt. Pleasant was Updegraff and Walker and Ganding and Moch for Martin's Ferry.
